DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Applicant is advised to update the status of the parent application on page 2 of the Specification.

Drawings

2. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they do not include the following reference sign(s) mentioned in the description: 306. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1, 2, and 4 through 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Blanchard et al. (U.S. Patent No. 5,885,028).

Blanchard et al., as seen in Figures 1 through 4, show a floating structure (38a) comprising:

with regard to claim 1,

a floatable hull; and

a storage vessel (42a);

with regard to claim 2,

wherein the storage vessel is disposed within the hull;

Art Unit: 3671

with regard to claim 4,

wherein the storage vessel is surrounded by an environmental boundary (40);

with regard to claim 5,

the environmental boundary comprising an insulated shell; and

with regard to claim 6,

wherein the storage vessel is disposed within a center column assembly of the floating structure.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claims 3 and 7 through 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Blanchard et al. (U.S. Patent No. 5,885,028).

Blanchard et al. '028 disclose all of the features of the claimed invention with the exception(s) of:

with regard to claims 3 and 11,

the storage vessel being located atop the hull;

with regard to claim 7,

the temperature within the environmental boundary being controlled;
with regard to claim 8,

the temperature control means comprising circulating fluid of desired temperature;
with regard to claim 9,

controlled fluid pressure;
with regard to claim 10,

the center assembly being retractable and extendable below the hull.

With regard to claims 3 and 11, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art of marine structures at the time the invention was made to modify the device shown by Blanchard et al. '028 such that it would storage vessels would be provide atop the hull.. The motivation would have been for ease of transfer of the vessels to another floating structure.

With regard to claims 7 through 9, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art of fluid handling at the time the invention was made to modify the device shown by Blanchard et al. '028 such that it would include temperature and pressure controls to preserve a desired state of the stored fluid.

With regard to claim 10, it is a well known expedient in the art of marine structures to make floating hulls with retractable and extendable portions.

With regard to claims 14 through 17, the method steps recited therein are inherent to the use of the device shown by Blanchard et al. '028 and as modified above by statements of obviousness.
